MARYVILLE BEATS TARKIO 21 TO 6

O'BANION CARRIED BALL OVER TWICE.

TARKIO HAS HEAVY LINE

Every Man of M. H. S. Played Good Ball—No Individual Stars—Play by Quarters.

The Maryville High School football team scored its first victory yesterday at Tarkio when it triumphed over the Tarkio High School team by a score of 21 to 6. The Maryville touchdowns were made by Captain Harold O'Banion and Quarterback Vodre Willoughby. O'Banion carried the ball over twice and kicked a place kick after each touchdown. The locals outplayed their opponents at all times with the exception of a portion of the second quarter when a blocked Maryville punt resulted in a Tarkio touchdown.

Although outweighed the Maryville line held well and made convenjent holes for line plays. Willoughby at quarterback, gained time and again on long end runs. Interference by the other backfield men made these gains possible.

There were no individual stars. All of the men on the Maryville team played well and Coach H. Frank Lawrence was forced to make only two substitutions.

In the Tarkio lineup Wood at quarter and Beman at half played a star game.

The play by quarters was as follows:

1st quarter—Tarkio kicked off to Maryville. After a few minutes of play Willoughby received a forward pass from O'Banion and gained thirty yards. O'Banion carried the ball over for a touchdown. O'Banion made place kick on the 5-yard line, scoring an additional point. Masters of Maryville kicked off. Quarter ended with the ball in Tarkio's possession on Maryville 40-yard line.

2nd quarter—Tarkio gained thirty yards on a play over Maryville's open center and held the ball on the 5-yard line. Maryville then held Tarkio for downs, but Tarkio blocked O'Banion's punt. Wood of Tarkio scored a touchdown, but failed to make the place kick.

3rd quarter—After a series of line bucks and of shift plays Willoughby scored a touch down for Maryville, O'Banion kicked place kick making score 14 to 6. Carstens of Maryville was hurt when he spiked a Tarkio man.

4th quarter—The game in the last quarter was almost evenly divided, although O'Banion scored a touchdown for Maryville. Game closed with the ball in Tarkio's possession on the 20-yard line.

The line up of the teams was:

Maryville (21)	Tarkio (6)
Ogden, le	re, McCormick
Hunt, lt	rt, McAdams
Jones, lg	rg, Christenson
Bush, c.	c, Reeves

Referee—Giblette of Tarkio College.

Maryville will play Rock Port next Friday at the College field in Maryville. Rock Port was defeated yesterday by Blanchard by a score of 37 to 7.

Among the Maryville rooters who made the trip to Tarkio to see the game were: the Rev. Joseph Cooper, Dr. Karl Malotte, Superintendent L. E. Ziegler, Ide Phipps, Lee Knox, H. L. Raines, Mrs. I. E. Tulloch, Gordon Roach, Virginia Tulloch, Stewart Tulloch, Donald Herndon, Donald Bellows, Marion Gile, Floyd Cook, Lawrence Masters, Joe Phipps, Wallace Hilsabeck, William McDougal, Morton Evans, Townsend Godsey, Ray Reynolds, John Smith, Leonard Carstens, Galen Hughes, Carl Craig, Richard Baker, Pearl Taylor, Raymond England, Clarence VanWormer, Harry Glover, Orville Fannon, Foster Wallace, Forrest Froman, Richard Holt, Margaret Louise Hosmer, Louise Peery, Laura Margaret Raines, Evelyn Raines, Ethel Wallace, Opal Craig and Charlene Pixler.

Clarence and Lucy Lloyd, children of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lloyd, went to St. Joseph this morning to spend the week end as guests of their uncle and aunt, Prof. and Mrs. R. L. Denning.

BUSINESS MEN TAKING INTEREST IN BEARCATS

Miller, Malotte, Cooper, Allison, Vogt and Knox Attend Many Practices.

Several of the business men of Maryville have been regular in their attendance at the daily practice of the State Teachers College football squad. These men, who are all football fans, have been out at the College grid almost every day looking the team over and speculating on the chances for the season.

The most loyal of these "business man rooters" are Dr. Jesse Miller, Jr., Dr. K. R. Malotte, the Rev. Joseph Cooper, the Rev. S. P. Allison, Clarence Vogt and Leo B. Knox.

All of these men are out to boost and not to kick or find fault and the members of the squad appreciate the interest shown.

LARGE INCREASE IN S. T. C. ENROLLMENT

GREATEST IN HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL

MEN NO LONGER ODDITY

In Former Years the Question Was Asked If the Few There Were Janitors

The total earollment at the State Teachers College is now 520. This includes the Conservatory of Music, where there are sixty-two students enrolled. This is the largest enrollment for a fall quarter at the College in the school's history.

Last year the enrollment for the fall quarter was 374. The year before that it was 245 and in 1919 242 students were enrolled. The increase over last year is 39 per cent or 146 students.

Not only has the College increased in enrollment during the past year, but all of the departments have been enlarged and the scope of the activities of the institution has been widened.

For the first time in the history of the State Teachers College there are at least a creditable number of men students enrolled. Heretofore, the women of the College have been by far the dominant element and now, although there are more of the "weaker sex" enrolled, the men are easily noticeable.

A short feature from the Green and White Courier, the College paper, follows:

One of the noticeable changes in the student body of the S. T. C. this fall is the increase in the number of boys enrolled.

No longer will the stranger look over the student body and inquire, "Is this a girls' boarding school?" or "Are the men we see janitors?" It is self-evident that this College is no longer "No Man's Land," for it now appears in its true light.

In former years a man had to sneak around corners, dodge behind stairways, or go through the basement. It was a case of self preservation. Now caution is thrown to the winds, and the men may be seen at all times frequenting the class rooms and even the corridors. All their fears seem to have subsided.

To one well acquainted with past conditions, this change in the number of boys, as compared to the number of girls, is much more apparent.

We wonder why the change—Is it the fairer sex?

SOME FINE EXHIBITS DISPLAYED AT HOPKINS

And There Was a Large Number of Them—Were Shown at Farmers' Day.

Some of the finest exhibitions of corn and apples ever seen in Nodaway County were on display yesterday at Hopkins for Farmer's Day of the 3-day picnic that is going on at that place. The entries were of an unusual quality and there were a large number of them.

Entries in the live stock show were remarkably good also. Jersey, Guernsey and Holstein cattle were in the dairy classes. They were judged by Roy A. Kinnaird, county agent, and County Agent Kingman of Taylor, County, Ia.

Guest at Perrin Hall

Mrs. Hattie Himebaugh of Malvern, Ia., arrived in Maryville today for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. Alice R. Perrin, at Perrin Hall.

7,000 NODAWAY CO. SCHOOL CHILDREN

BIG PERCENTAGE OF THIS NUMBER COMING TO SCHOOL DAY.

PATRONS ARE INTERESTED

The Many Cash Prizes That are Offered Seems to be Proving Big Drawing Card.

Seven thousand school children in Nodaway County have been told of the Nodaway County School Day that is to be held October 11 and the indications are that a large percentage of this 7,000 will be on hand for the big day. Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools, says that teachers continue to tell him that they are coming with flaots.

The fact that each of the entries is to receive $5, regardless of whether the float wins anything or not, is believed to be the big drawing card, along with the $300 for the eight best floats and the special prizes that are offered by the merchants and business men.

Mr. Somerville says that the school boards and the patrons in many districts are taking the same interest in the day that the pupils are. Several of the school boards will meet to make plans for the float.

The children are much interested in the fact that it is to be a kind of picnic affair and the fact that there will be a basket dinner for those who care to come with their dinners. This will be held on the court house lawn.

Following are the schools, with their teachers, that said yesterday that they would plan to enter floats:

Mt. Pleasant, Mary Sawyers; Glendale, Paul Smith; Clyde, Cletta Trueblood; Hazel Dell, Mrs. Ethel Lawrence; Possum Walk, Esther McElvain; Dawson, Chloe Henggler; White Lily, Gerald D. Kogar.

Independence, Myrle Simpson; Swinford, Cole Yiesley; Mt. Joy, Jessie Summers; Arkoe, Marie Terry; Long Branch, Jettie Robertson; Blackman, Hazel Moore; Morgan, Elizabeth Shambarger; East Star, Mrs. Emma Phipps.

Good Will, Mildred Barrett; Burr Oak, Helen Cottier; Eureka, Inez Hanna; Mount Vernon, Ethel Folden; Butler, Mary McDonald; Eudora, Lorena Palmer; Pleasant Valley, Lee Strader; Carter, Hildred Burke; Hagey, Ruth Jones; Griffith, Mrs. C. W. Haggerty; Star, Zona Robertson; Scrub Oak, Homer Williams; Union Valley, Mrs. Mayme Bird.

Council Corner, Leslie M. Dobbs; Mt. Ayr, Marie DeNeen; Bedison, Mae Davis; Bristle Ridge, James Graham.

In addition to the regular prizes offered and those offered by the Twentieth Century Club and the Daughters of the American Revolution, the following have been offered by business men:

To the school bringing float the farthest, one Toledo Steam Cooker, $12.00.—Cummins-Wray Furniture Co.

To the school bringing float the farthest, $10.00 in money.—Real Estate Bank.

To the school bringing float second farthest, sufficient curtain material for their school house.—Joe Cohn.

To the school bringing float the third farthest, First Aid Cabinet, complying with requirements of New York State law; value $10.00.—Koch Pharmacy.

To the school having the best display of corn and greatest variety, on their float, $10.00 in money.—Farmers Trust Company.

To the school having the best display of Vitalized Agriculture work, hand saw, square, hammer and jack plane, value $10.00.—E. C. Phares Hardware & Lumber Co.

To the school bringing float and largest delegation from their district, one basketball, value $5.00.—Kuch Bros., jewelry.

To the school having the most original idea, for float, 10 school records, value $7.50.—H. L. Raines, jewelry.

To the school bringing float the farthest, one year's subscription to the Daily Democrat-Forum.

To the school bringing float the farthest, one year's subscription to the Maryville Tribune.

A Queer Pig.

Earl Cavner, who lives five miles northeast of Hopkins, had one of the unique exhibits at the stock show yesterday. It was a hog with a double lower jaw. Those who saw the hog say that it made them think of a person who is hair-lipped. But he could eat corn just like the rest of the pigs.

DECIDES POULIN NOT FATHER OF MRS. TIERNAN'S BABY

Judge Believes, However, That Intimate Relations Existed—Wife Faints at Decision

Southbend, Ind., Sept. 30—Harry Poulin, campus haberdasher, was today adjudged not the father of Mrs. August Tiernan's baby, born last November, in the court decision by Judge Chester Ducomb. The decision came like a thunderbolt to the Tiernan's and friends who believed that the judge would sustain the charges made by the wife of Professor Tiernan of Notre Dame University. The judge stated, however, that he believed intimate relations existed between Poulin and the professor's wife. Mrs. Tiernan fainted at the decision.

MAURICE BERG'S CALF WINS FIRST

The Angus steer calf fed by Maurice Berg won first premium in the Baby Beef Contest which was held at the Gray pavilion this morning. Max Wray of Hopkins was second with his Shorthorn heifer and Laverne Butts of Ravenwood won third place on his Angus. The other seven premiums went to the following: Dale Dorman of Graham, Dale Aeklin of Graham, Loren Garrard of Parnell, Robert Komer of Maryville, Orval Davison of Maryville, Alice Komer of Maryville, and John M. Turner of Barnard.

First premium was $25, second $20, third $15, fourth $10, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth, $5.

The judging at the contest this morning was done by Harry Messick of Bolckow.

There were seventeen calves entered in the contest. Mr. Messick made an inspection of all seventeen animals, then culled out five. From the remaining twelve the ten premium calves were selected.

The five calves that won the first five premiums will be shipped free of charge to St. Joseph to the show which will be held there October 2-4. The boys who fed these five calves will have their expenses to St. Joseph and their board and lodging while there paid.

All seventeen of the calves will be shipped to St. Joseph, but the owners of those that were not among the first five will have to pay their transportation.

The calves will be exhibited October 3 and the following day will go into the ring to be sold at auction.

Motion pictures were taken of the calves as they were on their way to the Burlington station to be loaded on the freight to be shipped to St. Joseph. They will be made a part of the picture, "Agriculture in Nodaway County," of the Chamber of Commerce.

MEXICAN GARRISON AT JUAREZ IS IN REVOLT

Battle Waged in Fore Part of Morning in City Across River from El Paso

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 30.—Seven are reported killed and twenty-five wounded when the federal garrison at Juarez, across the Rio Grande from El Posa revolted, according to word received here from the department of justice. General Mendez, commander of the troops, fled across the river to El Paso. The revolt is led by Captain Valverno of the garrison.

The battle lasted throughout the early part of the morning. Late reports indicated that the federal troops were rallied by the officers and that they drove the rebels from the town. Spectators crowded the international bridge connecting El Paso and Juarez during the battle. A youth was struck by a stray bullet.

Mexico, Sept. 30—One hundred and twenty-five members of the forty-fourth Mexican regiment of Juarez revolted today and liberated the civil jail prisoners, according to a report from General Martinez at Chihuahua. Garrison troops are reported to be holding half the city rebels in control at the headquarters of the Forty-Third regiment.

REED WILL SPEAK HERE ON OCT. 16

AT DEMOCRATIC TENT MEETING OTHER SPEAKERS

SPRATT WILL MAKE TALK

Democratic Candidates for the Supreme Court and State School Superintendent Will Attend

Senator James A. Reed, democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, will be the speaker at the Democratic rally to be held in Maryville on Monday night, October 16. The meeting will be held in a tent furnished by the Democratic state committee. It is not definitely decided where the tent will be placed.

In addition to Senator Reed, William T. Ragland, Robert F. Walker and John T. White, candidates on the Democratic ticket for the supreme court, will be here and will probably give short addresses. C. A. Lee of Butler, the Democratic candidate for state superintendent of schools, will be in attendance at the rally and will also make a few remarks.

William E. Spratt, candidate for congressman from this district, will attend the meeting and will speak.

So far as is known at this time only a night meeting will be held in Maryville. Effotrs will be made to get crowds here from all over the county.

This will be the first appearance of Sen. Reed in Nodaway County for several years. While Senator Reed was scheduled to make a speech here during the primary campaign, he was unable to fill that engagement on account of the flood in this section of the state at that time. Senator Reed will have a crowded tent to hear him

Senator Reed in a speech at Jefferson City Thursday night said in part:

"Republican organization leaders now are raking the United States for Republican Senators to make speeches for my opponent. I know this to be the fact, but I want to say that the best Republican Senators refused to come in. You won't find Borah, LaFollette, Johnson or Norris or other Progressive Republicans coming into the state to attack me. The reason is they won't do that kind of work."

Reed attacked President Harding during his discussion of Harding's veto of the soldier bonus legislation.

"I speak of him kindly. There was never a gentler soul who chased a golf ball across the green," he said. Laughter followed this sally.

"The first bonus bill was put in its sepulcher by Senator Penrose and the Senate Finance Committee, and it will never to be heard of again."

Then he said another bill was introduced and passed, this being vetoed by President Harding. He said the Republican administration reduced the taxes upon 12,000 millionaires, but refused to give the soldiers a bonus.

"You Republicans were not to blame for that, neither were Senators Borah, Johnson, Kenyon and other Progressives in your party."

He said the tariff was written by "trust for trusts, thieves for thieves and that the people must pay the bills."

"You do not have a Republican administration in office, you have a government of big money, of trusts and of criminals."

Reed concluded with declaration that Brewster, if elected, would go under the party lash and vote for what these bosses want him to.

COUNTRY LIFE TOO WILD, MOTHER SEEKS PEACE IN CITY LIFE

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 30—Life in the country sounded good as a theory to Mrs. Margaret Chamberlian. She and her three small children have now moved back to the city, where it is much quieter.

"It was not a home I was living in—it was a menagerie," she said, "Bears drank from the same spring we did; our woodpile was infested with rattlesnakes; milksnakes came into the kitchen, and the children, not knowing what they were, toyed with them; wild cats sat on the porch and made the nights hideous with their shrieks; weasels ran over my feet when I sat outside; vipers hissed when I picked berries, and when the wind blew it rained devil's darning needles from nearby trees. Outside of this life in the country was not so bad."

Reason for Celibacy

"Why have I never married?" The confirmed bachelor repeated a leading question. "Well, once upon a time in a crowd I trod on a lady's gown. She turned, furiously, beginning, 'You clumsy brute!' Then she smiled sweetly, and said, "Oh, I beg your pardon, I thought you were my husband. No, it realy doesn't matter in the least."

"And when I came to think it over declared that I'd better let marriage alone.

PUBLIC PAYING INDUSTRIAL COST

BILL FOR LATE STRIKERS MUST BE LIQUIDATED BY CONSUMERS

COAL AT ROOT OF BURDEN

Business Slump, Followed by Slow, Painful Revival, Are After Effects

By W. H. ATKINS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, Sept. 30—The public's pocketbook nerve—most sensitive of all nerves in the body politic—is now feeling the effect of industrial war losses. Those losses are huge. The public has begun liquidating the bill for the frays between capital and labor by paying higher prices on some of the chief necessities of life. Higher prices on articles that are indispensable in the households of the land may go through the entire Winter and into next Spring because of this year's periodical labor scrap.

High cost of coal will be at the root of most of the financial burdens of the people. Everything that industry manufactures will take on an added cost, because the overhead charges of operation are thereby increased.

Coal Barons Painful

Only the coal barons will derive comfort from this new era of inflation. State price control, now relied upon by the Federal Government to hold prices of fuel in check, can be at best only a partial success in restraining extortion. The coal operators figure to win in any event. It is no secret that they have laid their plans to double their normal profits on all coal sold this winter. In the end they will lose nothing by the long tie-up in the mines.

First results of the industrial war which has embroiled both railroad and coal industries was recession in commercial and industrial activity. Industrial activity slowed down considerably because of scarcity of coal supplies. The difficulties of transportation have also been a retarding factor to business. As Winter approaches these troubles probably will become aggravated.

Along with this slackening of industry there is a sudden shortage of some commodities and a sudden advance in prices. Official figures show the most notable increases in prices have occurred in coal ,animal products cotton and sugar. The increases have been general in the wholesale and retail trade.

May Be Suffering

When mid-Winter comes — four months hence—the country may witness not only high prices but widespread suffering, especially among the poor unable to pay extortionate prices for fuel needed to keep them warm. None of the responsible officials of the Government, studying the coal situation, can see far enough ahead to predict that the country will escape a period of great distress during the cold months.

One thing is certain and that is the country is so far behind in its coal supply that the mines even at top speed operation cannot mine enough coal to supply the needs of the people. It will be a hand-to-mouth supply for all consumers. And it will be obtainable only at famine prices. The millions of poor people it now seems certain are doomed to go through freezing weather in thousands of cities and towns without fuel.

TOURISTS KNOW LONDON BETTER THAN ENGLISH

London, Sept. 30.—"What should they know of London, who only London know?"

"Kipling's famous line needs altering," says the Daily Express. "There is only one person who knows his London. He is the American tourist."

The Express sent a reporter, who had lived all his life in London, out with a group of American tourists and the reporter came back full of information about his home town that he had acquired from the tourists.

DAUGHTER SWATS DAD; HE OBTAINS WARRANT

Greenville, O., Sept. 30.—When his eighteen-year-old daughter, India, hit him on the hand with a hoe, Tom Brailey swore out a warrant for her arrest. India, however, left town before arrest could be made. Police were informed that the daughter wielded the garden implement during an argument arising from her father's objection to her going some place.

A Call For Onions!

"Lots of Onions in the country," let's be glad and e'en rejoice, for they're grown in all complexions, so that you can have your choice; yes, an onion has a flavor, very much unlike the rose, and you'll come to know its temper, being true that "your nose, knows."

And your eyes! Why land o' mercy! 'Tis a sight to make one weep, when it comes to peeling onions and your tears you try to keep. But your onions call for tear drops, so you somehow let 'em slide and your eyes are red from weeping from the tears you cannot hide. Yet, the onion makes us happy; for no hash can be complete if the onion is not in it and nobody wants to eat hot hamburger if the onion is by any chance left out and, 'tis said an onion army puts the bad germs all to rout. True, you may not like the perfume of the man with onion breath, but he likes them—their aroma may have put his germs to death.

Bring them in, oh harvest onions; bring the big red Weathersfield; carry in the golden Danvers: All the fertile fields will yield. Let us have our hash, oh housewives, make the liver piping hot! Fry the onion or else stew it, in the pan, the skilet, pot. Let the wild winds waft their fragrance so that all mankind may know from the throbbing morbid tropics to the Arctic's chilling snow.

A lot of men think
Because they labor under
A delusion they should
Not be classed as loafers.

When you hear a Maryville woman refer to another woman as just her age you know the woman referred to is younger.

Every man may have his price but there are a lot of fellows in Maryville who feel cheap and give themselves away.

Uncle Abner say hush money nearly always has the last word.

We rode down town with our neighbor the other day and noticed a string tied around his finger. "What is the big idea"? we asked, "My wife put it there so I would not forget to mail a letter for her" he replied. "You will remember it?" we then observed. "I can't as she forgot to give me the letter," was the reply.

The average man never thinks of saving for a rainy day until it begins to sprinkle.

One often wonders how the fellow with the cute little printing presses on the curb, who prints cards for a living gets by. But get by he does and in good shape too because there is something in human vainty that inveigles the victim into having his name in black and white some way.

Louise, the stenographer, says every time the average man looks into the mirror he imagines he sees a hero.

Why should we place so much importance on a man's origin? It is the finish which counts.

Vagrant Musings.

The secret of a man being popular is the fact that such men are not aware of it.

It is always wise to let the other fellow have his way so long as it is only talk.

The greatest successes in most men's lives are those which come unexpectedly.

A woman who ceases to care how her hair looks behind has not long for this world.

No man is humble who boasts of humility.

M. E. OTIS GIVES BALLOT RULING

VOTER CAN VOTE FOR MAN ON OTHER PARTY'S TICKET

OR HE CAN WRITE IN NAME

Of Person Not Nominated, According to Assistant Attorney General Otis

Jefferso nCity, Sept. 30—Under a running yesterday by M. E. Otis, assistant attorney general, there are three different methods in which a voter at the next general election may vote for some single candidate on a party ticket not his or her own, and under each plan the law will be observed and the ballot must be counted as cast. The letter of the assistant attorney general is addressed to J. C. Hughes, prosecuting attorney of Montgomery County, one of several officials who sought an opinion on the subject. The assistant attorney general also says that those who do not wish to vote for any of the candidates on the printed ballot may write in such names as they desire and their ballots will be legal. The opinion follows:

"Dear Mr. Hughes: In your letter of September 22 you call attention to a situation for which express provision is not made in the new blanket ballot laws of this state, namely one in which a voter does not desire to vote for a certain candidate on his party ticket, but, on the other hand, does not desire to vote for the candidate of the opposite party.

Can Cross Both Names

"For the sake of clearness we will illustrate: A Democratic voter does not wish to vote for James A. Reed, whose name will appear on the Democratic ballot as the candidate of that party for the office of United States senator, but he does not desire to vote for the Republican candidate. Again, a Republican voter does not wish to vote for Mr. Brewster, the Republican nominee, nor does he wish to vote for Mr. Reed. Under the old law the Democrat would simply draw a line through the name of James A. Reed on the Democratic ballot and would not write in any other name; the Republican would do likewise in the case of his party nominee. Under the new blanket ballot law, however, no provision is made for this manner of voting, but the purpose aimed at may be very easily accomplished by any one of several other methods.

"The simplest way in which a voter may vote against a candidate on his own ticket without voting for the candidate on another ticket is by putting a cross mark before the names of two or more candidate for the same office.

"The law provides that: 'When a voter shall place a mark against two or more names for the same office and only one candidate is to be chosen for the office, none of the candidates shall be deemed to have been voted for, and the ballot shall not be counted for either of such candidates.

Thus a Democrat, not desiring to vote for either Mr. Reed, the candidate on his ticket, or for Mr. Brewster, should place a cross mark before the names of both; an a Republican not desiring to vote for either Mr. Brewster, the candidate on his ticket, or for Mr. Reed, should place a cross mark before the names of both.

May Write In names.

"A second easy methodof accomplishing the same purpose is indicated by the following language from the statute: 'If the voter desires to vote for a candidate whose name does not appear on the printed ballot, he may do so by drawing a line through the printed name of the candidate for such office, and write below such cancelled name the name of the person for whom he desires to vote, and place a cross mark in the square at the left of such name.'

"To illustrate: A Democrat might draw a line through Mr. Reed's name and write beneath it the name of Breckinridge Long, or a Republican might draw a line through Mr. Brewster's name and write beneath it the name of John C. McKinley. In each instance the name written in would receive the vote as would the name of any other person so written in, provided it was not a name appearing elsewhere on the printed ballot and provided a cross mark is placed in the square at the left of the name so written in.

A Third Way More Cumbrous.

"A thrid very cumbrous method is indicated by the following language from the statute: 'If the cross mark(x) is not placed in the circle immediately below the party name at the head of the column, but does appear in the square opposite the various candidates' names, then only those names shall be counted and none other.'

"By this method a person, not desiring to vote for any candidate for United States senator, would mark a cross opposite the names of candidates for other offices for whom he desires to vote, but would not mark the circle at the head of any party column on the ticket.

"What has been said herein by way of illustration in connection with the office of United States senator applies equally, of course, to any other office."

FISHERMEN ENCOUNTER TOUGH ONE; HE GOT AWAY

Plymouth, Mass., Sept. 30.—Jonah and the well-known whale had nothing on Harry Sloane and Jacob Snyder, during a fishing trip they took in the bay here.

The two men declare they met a fish at least eight feet long, which had a hide so tough that it could not be pierced with an ax, a gaff-hook, or with bullets from a revolver, all of which they tried. They declared that the inside of the creature's mouth was so scaly that hooks and gaffs made no impression, but slipped off as though they had struck a sheet of steel.

The fish, according to a description given by the two men, was gray on the back and white underneath and weighed at least sixty pounds, they said. Futhermore, it had no tail. The fish got away.

News From Over The County

Skidmore News

Another of those automobile accidents that might easily have been fatal occurred about two and one-fourth miles west of town Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. William Mullins and two sons, Otto and William, of Salem, Nebraska, had been here since Sunday, visiting their son, W. L. Mullins, who has the Howden orchard leased. They were starting home Tuesday morning, and the accident was due to the fact that Mr. Mullins was not familiar with the road. As they drove toward town, there was a team in front of them, and when this team pulled to the right Mr. Mullins decided to pass it, not knowing that there was a deep ditch at the left of the road. The front wheels of their Ford car struck the ditch, and the car turned over so quickly that the occupants were not thrown out of their seats. No one was seriously injured, although they were all more or less bruised and shaken up. Mr. Mullins started home in the car yesterday morning and Mrs. Mullins and the children went on the tarin, as they were too badly shaken up to make the trip in the car.

W. D. Coffman, who has had charge of the Standard Oil station here for several months, has resigned, and moved to St. Joseph. Lester Sweringen of Barnard took charge of the station the first of the week, and he and Mrs. Sweringen have moved into Miss Peter's property where the Coffmans have been living.

John R. King, the well known farmer and stockman, met with a very serious accident Friday while helping fill a silo on the Turner farm, just south of Hopkins, getting his left hand caught in the cutter, losing his little finger and two joints of the fourth and one joint of the third finger. The thumb and hand was also badly mangled. He was rushed to the office of Dr. Maxwell for emergency treatment and then taken to the Maryville hospital where amputation took place and he is now getting along very nicely although yet suffering considerable pain.

After many years of faithful service which made the town rise from being a sink of iniquity to a plane of law and order, our City Marshal, G. L. Purcell, was honored by the people of the town who by popular contribution, purchased for him a beautiful 14-carat gold five pointed star. Across the face of the star is inscribed "Deputy Sheriff Nodaway County, Mo." The presentation was made last Friday evening by J. J. Burns, who started the movement in the presence of a large crowd. Mr. Purcell was unable to give voice to the thanks he desired to express. The little token by a grateful people is cherished by him not for its intrinsic worth or value alone, but as a momento of the good feeling entertained for him by his fellow townsmen.

The new modern home now being constructed by Volley Protzman on his farm southwest of town is under full headway. When completed Mr. Protzman will have one of the finest residences in this part of the county.

LANDED CLASS IN ENGLAND ON TRIAL

Nationalization Looms—"Mere Rent Receivers" Unable To Administer Estates

London, Sept. 30.—Nationalization of the land is inevitable in Great Britain unless the landowners justify their position.

Lord Bledisloe, a leading authority on agriculture and during the war Parliamentary Secretary of the Ministry of Food, is the person who makes this prediction.

The history of agriculture in the United Kingdom for the last seventy years does not redound to the credit of either the landowners or the statesmen, Lord Bledisloe declares.

"Landowners who should have given the lead have failed to do so," the Lord says. "The British agricultural landowners to-day is on his trail.

"Unless he justifies himself as such the nationalization of the land is inevitable. Public opinion will demand his extinction and Parliament will endorse the demand.

"Many landowners have been for the last two generations mere rent receivers, and have possessed neither the knowledge nor the inclination personally to administer their own estates, still less to cultivate them on commercial lines for their own and the nation's benefit.

"So far as they have been organized as a class of the community they have been organized not as producers of wealth, but as defenders of property, and as such their organization has in a highly democratic country, afforded them but a small and steadily decreasing measure of security.

"They have thus lost their political power, because it had no economic basis."

For the past generation and more the landowners of Great Britain have failed to carry out reforms or preform services to those living off of the land. The agricultural position of Great Britain has been weakened through the failure of the landed classes to develop properiy their holdings, Lord Bledisloe charges.

Lord Bledisloe is an advocate of land reforms and of striking reforms in the marketing of agricultural products, one of his projects being the elimination of superfluous and unnecessary middle men.

RECEPTION TO REV. JAMES AT TRENTON FRIDAY NIGHT

Trenton Pastor Leaves for Maryville—Ministry at Trenton Has Been Successful

(From Trenton Republican)

The Methodists will bid their minister, Rev. C. C. James farewell at a party Friday night at the church and greet the incoming pastor, Rev. E. L. Robinson of Brookfield, all at the same time. This is but another time in the history of the church when the pastors are changed, one going and another coming within the same day or week.

Rev. James has been here two years, coming here from Cameron. His ministry has been successful and the church regrets his change, but changes will come in the Methodist Church and none can begrudge the appointment at Maryville at a larger and better charge than this. It is expected that there will be a good representation of other church members there to bid farewell.

Rev. Robinson is to be present to be introduced and to meet the members of the new charge. This will probably be something of one of the church suppers which Rev. James started and which brought together closer the church membership.
